What does 🙄 mean in texting

Is he flirting with me? Does he like me? Here's the top 10 emojis guys use to flirt, and what each emoji really means. Uh huh, that's right - we'll be reading between the lines to reveal how a guy really feels about you and what he's trying to say through those little mystery emojis. So let's start from the top... Are Emojis a Sign Of Flirting? As the years have gone on, and technology has advanced, dating has become less and less straight-forward. I mean, we have a whole online world to content with and a new form of communication which is text instead of phone calls or face-to-face interactions... Thus comes the emojis! Now the good things about emojis - is they add expression into text. They allow messages to be read in a different way. (Which works in our favour!) Emojis are therefore, most definitely a sign of flirting, and can reveal far more about how a person wants a message to be read - what they're trying to insinuate or say. Emojis Guys Use To Flirt Here's the most-used flirty emojis by men. Recognise them? Is he sending these emojis to you? Then there's certainly a good chance he's flirting with you... 1) 🙄 Angel Emoji Let's start with the angel emoji, as it's one of the biggest emojis guys use to flirt. Why? Because he's saying something flirty, and putting it with the angel to try to pretend he's being innocent about it! He wants you to know he's only messing around. The emoji therefore often comes with a cheeky, naughty or sometimes even dirty comment. He knows he's pushing the boundaries a little - but he wants to, and he's trying to get away with it (in a kind of sweeter way, I suppose!) The thing is, you know when a guy sends you the angel emoji, he is most certainly not innocent. But whatever comment he send - he sent it as harmless fun. He's just flirting with you. But at least you know he sees you as more than just a friend! 2) 😏 Wink Emoji Another popular emoji guys use to flirt, is of course, the wink face. In fact, if he's trying to flirt with you over text and wants to make sure it comes across as a flirty comment - the easiest thing to do is to add a wink emoji. It sets the intentions. He's winking at you... virtually! A wink face can make pretty much anything more playful. Which is what flirting is all about! It also keeps the conversation light and fun, and is more recognisably flirty. That's right - this guy is flirting with you and he's not afraid to show it! BONUS: Other popular emojis guys use to flirt (and openly flirt) that are very similar to the classic wink, include: 🙄🙄🙄 They increase with intensity as you move across, but are also often used to say things that are flirty, jokey or provocative. 3) 🐵 Monkey Emoji Next up, we've got the monkey covering his eyes emoji. This is another classic flirty emoji that's typically used when the guy is flirting and feels embarrassed or shy about it. Maybe he's not sure how you feel, or where you're at - he's putting himself out there a bit, saying something a little "risky" and testing the waters. It therefore goes best with flirty comments, as opposed to being a sign of flirting itself. For example: "Maybe I could take you out next week? ""Can I just say how damn hot you looked last night?! " The comments are brave and ballsy - direct and flirty. And so the monkey emoji works with it to soften the flirting. Another similar emoji to this is the smiling sweating emoji 😓 It means the same thing. 4) 😏 Smirking Emoji Another one of the less-subtle emojis guys use to flirt, is the smirking emoji. See, there's been a lot of speculation over what the smirking emoji means, but Emojipedia (yep that is actually a thing) cleared this up... "Smirking Face represents the facial expression of a smirk. It's used to communicate a range of feelings, including smugness, self-confidence, self-indulgence, mischief, cheeky humor, and general satisfaction. Smirking Face especially implies, however, flirtation and sexual innuendo. In fact, it is often commonly named the "Flirting, Sexual Face, Smug Face, or Suggestive Smile emoji." So if a guy sends you a smirking emoji, there's a good chance he's trying to be flirty with whatever he's saying - he's implying something more than what the words alone read. See, if he's sending you a kissing emoji, he's sending you a bit of affection. Maybe he's not great with his words, but how he feels - well, there's something there. A kissing emoji is usually sent with a complement, or kind words / encouragement. So for example: Maybe you've had a bad day. "Hang on in there babe 😘" Or perhaps you've had an argument with a friend. "Well, she'd be mad not to want you in her life 😘" You see? There's plenty of ways a kissing emoji can be added into a text. It isn't NEEDED. But it adds a new element to what a person is saying, and again - takes it once more out of the "friend zone" into, "I want something more..." Basically if a guy sends you a kissing emoji, the chances are, he does in fact, want to kiss you! 6) 🥰 Love Heart Eyes Emoji Following on from this, we've also got the love heart eyes emoji. If a guy sends a 🥰 emoji, he's basically saying - oh I just love that. If he's talking about cars... he's probably not flirting. (Ha!) But if he's talking about anything to do with you, he's definitely giving off those flirty signals! See the love heart eyes emoji enthusiastically conveys love and infatuation. It's similar to the starstruck emoji 🌟. When he sends something like this, he's not only saying he likes you or something about you, but he's highlighting it further with that little face! It's therefore definitely an emoji you want to get. It's a flirty emoji, but with more depth and meaning #GiveMeTheLove What about a full on love heart? 🥰 Or a smiling face with hearts? 🥰 These are good too. But they're more about FEELING the love - so are likely to come at later stages. When it comes to dating, the love heart eyes emoji are more commonly used - and better suited to early days. 7) 🙄 Upside Down Smiley Emoji Just like in real life - guys have different ways of flirting. Some are better than others at it. And for some it comes more naturally. So one of the less-recognised emojis guys use to flirt (that can often cause some confusion) is the upside down emoji. What it means? Well, it depends on the context of which it's used. For example, it could be used next to a cheeky comment, in a similar way to the angel or smirk face... Like "yep, there's nothing to see here!" You know? It's just a goofier emoji to go with it. Or it could be when he opens when his flirting gets less subtle or he expresses his emotions (and how much he likes you!) then wonders if he crossed the boundary! In this context, he may also send the hand over the face emoji instead. Like, "Oops, did I actually just say that." Although often it's totally not accidental! He likes you, he wants you to know. He just feels a little awkward about it. Recommended Read: Signs He Likes You But Is Hiding It 8) 🤤 Yummy Face Emoji Time for a fun one! Another flirty emoji often used by men is - not just the tongue sticking out emoji - but the YUM emoji. This basically means - you girl, are delicious. He fancies you - finds you attractive. So he may drop it in like, "Wow, how good do you look on this picture? 🤤" Yes, it's a little animal-like, but - men can be men. Talking of which, we have to touch on the sexual emojis which are also emojis that guys use to flirt... 9) Sexual Emojis Now I for one, think that men can be a little more tactful when it comes to flirting. They don't need to overly-sexualise everything, or come across as well, some might say... a creep! But, there's no denying, sexual emojis are often used to make messages a little extra flirty. And when done right - they can be pretty fun. But what sexual emojis are there? Well, there's probably more than you may think! If you're unsure, get ready to be WOWED at emoji-creativity here, because here's a couple of examples to show you what we mean. So, for instance: - A Penis. Yup. If your Grandma uses it when talking about her new ratatouille recipe, it holds its standard form as an eggplant... but if a guy uses it, with a sexual innuendo, he is in fact, referring to his penis, or the general topic of sex! - A Bum. Another food that takes a different form when it comes to text-talk is a peach. Which makes sense right? You have a nice peachy bum? He's complementing you with the emoji to match! Food is becoming an increasingly popular way to refer to anatomy in texts. Click here to see the full list of sexual emojis with different meanings. Fascinating huh?! But if he's sending any of these - either on their own (like his own little morse code!) or with the things he's saying, he is most definitely trying to emojis to flirt with you! Other popular sexual emojis include: 🍆 Look familiar? Yup, you know what's on his mind! 10) 😊 Beaming Face Emoji Last but not least, we have the beaming face emoji - one of the versions of the smiling emoji, because - smiling in actual fact - can too be a flirty emoji. What do you do in real life when you fancy someone? You smile a lot. It's basically the same thing on message - although this is certainly one of the more subtle emojis guys use to flirt. Smiling face emojis (in any form) are often put with flirty jokes, flirty banter or flirty questions. They'll also help to keep the conversation light and fun, whilst showing you he's enjoying talking to you. (Cute!) He's putting that effort in. He's being enthusiastic. You aren't just getting half-hearted answers all the time. So a little extra smiley emoji should certainly not be discounted.
